I wrote the Sheriff of Campbell County Jail the Prison Policy Manager and advised him of my situation and incarceration. Jail Administrator, no response and also have ignored this matter. According to state law I'm supposed to get an hour outside a day that I do not receive and can't receive here and deprives me of sunlight which affects my vitamin D which is essential to my health.

The Delay to my commitment to the Department of Corrections and access to programs and work is a violation of state law. I am a sentenced inmate sentenced for years, and there is a continuous violation here of state statute which the Sheriff and the Administrator has been advised. I am sentenced to the Department of Corrections am entitled to the same as a inmate in the Department.

1. Not receiving an hour outside a day, state law violation state 2. No access to programs not being kept at work or and education. state law violation, state 3. Sheriff to regulate incarcerations, supposed to permit inmate to Department of Corrections as soon as possible, I've been here six months, violation of state statute law. And the governor hasn't approved the overcrowding Regulation.

4. Not receiving my Sentenced Reduction Credits as state law provides. Violation of state law state.
I am entitled to what state law provides and the same as a TDOC inmate in the Department.

2. What was the result? _____
